St. John Paul II - Feast Day October 22

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol was a university student involved in the underground theatre and later secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Auxiliary Bishop in 1958, Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. Together with Cardinal Wyszynski, he worked to preserve the Church of Poland within a hostile communist environment. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, the first non-Italian in over four centuries, and to honor his predecessors, he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. More people in the world saw him in person than any other individual in history. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, to show the value and contributions of the elderly and infirmed, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005 - the Vigil of the Feast of Divine Mercy, a devotion he championed together with the person of St. Faustyna Kowalska. He was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014. Many refer to him as "the Great", a title conferred on only two other popes: Leo and Gregory.

Something on the Lighter Side

Donation

Father O'Malley answers the phone. "Hello, is this Father O'Malley?" "It is." "This is the IRS. Can you help us?" "I can." "Do you know a Ted Houlihan?" "I do." "Is he a member of your congregation?" "He is." "Did he donate $10,000 to the church?" "He will."

Helpful Prayer

Billy had been misbehaving and was sent to his room. After a while he emerged and informed his mother that he had thought it over and then said a prayer. "Fine," said the pleased mother. "If you ask God to help you not misbehave, He will help you." "Oh, I didn't ask Him to help me not misbehave," said Johnny. "I asked Him to help you put up with me."

Memorial Remembrances

One of the important matters which everyone must consider at some time or another is the final disposition of their earthly possessions. Usually, this includes remembering those things most dear to us during our lifetime. Our parish of St. Casimir is such an entity. We are grateful to those families who requested in obituaries that donations be made in memory of their loved ones to our Church. We encourage others to consider doing the same and also to remember us in your estate planning and will. Your love, help, and concern can ensure the long lasting, vibrant future for St. Casimir's.

SOME SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS...

CALLING ALL HANDS...as AUTUMN is upon us, our Parish grounds need a little TLC to maintain & keep beautiful. Wednesdays remain the day where all are welcome to come between 10AM and 2PM to help-out. Come experience the joy and camaraderie of our volunteers and do something good for our Parish at the same time! See You There - and thanks ahead of time for helping!!!

The "Wall of Love"...at our neighbor, Willson Elementary School, is always in need of additional donations to assist families in need. You can drop-off items such as toiletries, food, school supplies, socks, and winter items like coats, hats, gloves, & scarves in the church vestibule. We'll see that they get taken to the school and put to very good use!

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary...and as is our custom at St. Casimir, we will have the recitation of the Holy Rosary following each Sunday Mass throughout the month. Each week one of the different Mysteries will be recited - Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous - and we will rotate between English and Polish each week. This week will be the Glorious Mysteries said in English. Plan on joining us for this wonderful & powerful prayer.

A Special Second Collection...will be taken-up TODAY in support of the Catholic Communications Campaign, which helps the Church use various forms of media to spread the Gospel message. Please be as generous as you are able.

FREEDOM consists not in doing what we LIKE, but in having the RIGHT to do what we OUGHT.

-ST. JOHN PAUL II

SANCTUARY LAMP INTENTIONS

Special envelopes are now available for "reservation intentions" for the two Sanctuary Lamps - the red ones which burn continuously on either side of the Tabernacle. Cost for each lamp is $10 and the intentions will be printed in the Parish Bulletin, as well. Each week when the lamps will be lit a prayer will be offered for the intention requested. Submit your intention requests in the envelopes provided along with the regular offertory collection.
